Fair Dillard

Fair Dillard,
Gleaming white and spacious green,
We love thy every blade and tree;
We love thy breathless days, thy nights serene,
Thy halls where men are men and free.
Arise, O sons and daughters, hail thy queen,
And pledge for aye thy loyalty.

Fair Dillard,
Flaming love and learning's light,
Teach us each day, each passing hour,
A deep'ning love for beauty, truth and right,
Source of all nobleness and pow'r.
And through the Joyous days, the dreaded nights,
Forever Guide, Alma Mater!
Forever Guide, Alma Mater!

Dedication

This year we pay tribute to one of the oldest members of the Dillard faculty in terms of service to the University. This man has completed his eighteenth year of invaluable service to the university and the community. His jovial, amiable personality has endeared him to everyone at Dillard.

Because he is one who thinks only of helping others and forgets his own comforts and desires . . .

Because of his untiring devotion to the administration and the entire Dillard family . . .

Because of his conscientious interest in his work and the innumerable lives he has touched . . .

Because of his many unselfish contributions to the development of youth . . .

We, with a deep sense of humility and genuine affection, dedicate the 1957 edition of LE DIABLE BLEU to . . . DR. NORMAN A. HOLMES.

THE HISTORY OF MAN PARALLELS HIS EFFORTS TO PRESERVE CHERISHED MOMENTS OF HIS EXISTENCE.

THIS, THE 1957 LE DIABLE BLEU, IS THE CULMINATION OF OUR EFFORTS TO PRESERVE THE HAPPY MOMENTS OF A SUCCESSFUL YEAR.

THE PRESIDENT

Fellow Students:

When you reach my age--and long before--you will look back upon your days at Fair Dillard as being among the happiest of your lives; and as the years pass, this issue of Le Diable Bleu will become more and more a treasured memento of your campus activities and friendships. This yearbook will bring back many fond recollections of wonderful college days--hold on to it.

For those of you who will depart from the campus at the end of this year, I wish genuine happiness and the greatest of success in all your undertakings. Dillard expects great things of her sons and daughters.

For those of us who will remain here and participate in other issues of Le Diable Bleu, I have high hopes for continuing development of a most stimulating atmosphere for an enriched campus life.

Cordially yours,

A. W. Dent
President

Chairman, Division of the Natural Sciences

Division of the Natural Sciences

The Division of the Natural Sciences seeks to acquaint the student with the individual sciences and their inter-relationships. The student has many opportunities to appreciate and develop interest in the unexplored areas of science.

The Division of the Natural Sciences offers a concentration in biology, chemistry, mathematics or physics. Courses taken early in the student's career provide for a liberal education rather than for specialization. The more advanced courses are designed to broaden the student and prepare him for graduate or professional study. Therefore, the individual science curriculum embraces programs for the general student, the pre-medical or pre-dental student, and the potential scientist.

The Division of Nursing

The Division of Nursing is an outgrowth of the pressing demand for nurses to meet the basic health problems which affect the health of the entire nation. It includes the physical and biological sciences, social sciences, medical sciences, nursing and allied arts, and other general education courses. Upon the completion of the entire curriculum students receive the degree, Bachelor of Science in Nursing, and are eligible, if twenty-one years of age, to take the State Board examination given by the Louisiana State Board of Nurse examiners. Successful passing of this examination entitles the graduate nurse to registration in Louisiana and makes her eligible for membership in nursing organizations.

The Division of Nursing is accredited by the Louisiana State Board of Nurse examiners, and the National Nursing accrediting service.

The Division of

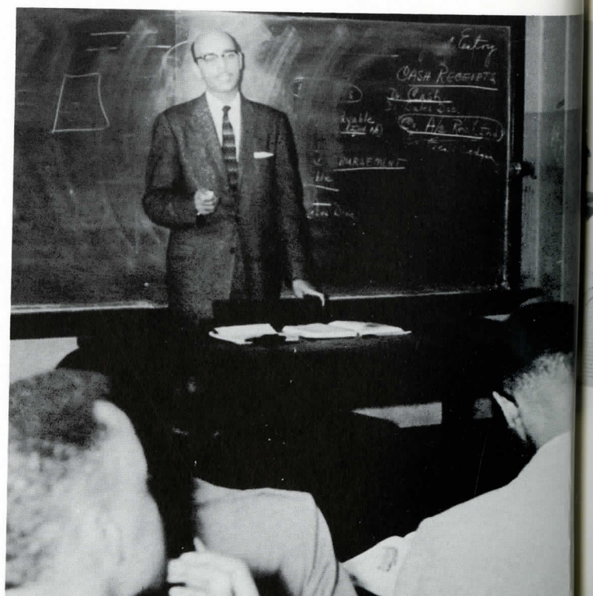

In the Division of the Social Sciences courses are offered in three areas of concentration: economics and business administration, history and government, sociology and anthropology.

Although the divisional curriculum is designed to provide a broad and useful social science background for all students in the university, its major objective is to provide basic pre-professional training for students interested in law and international relations, civic and governmental service, economics, business and institutional management, sociology and social work, and to help develop secondary and college teachers.

Class in Principles and Techniques in Elementary Education

The Dillard University program in Education aims to prepare students for teaching in the kindergarten, elementary and secondary education fields. It proposes to send into the teaching profession individuals proficient in both subject-matter content and techniques of teaching. It also proposes to furnish these individuals with a sound educational philosophy so as to enable them to perform with distinction in their chosen field of work.

The curriculum in the Division of Education is organized to equip the student with: (1) a general education in the areas of the humanities, the sciences, social science, health education and recreation; (2) specialization in the subject matter of the field in which he expects to teach; (3) professional discipline through the study of psychology, and the history, philosophy, and principles of education; (4) a capacity for good teaching through observation, participation and practice teaching in the pre-schools; and (5) a professional and a democratic point of view.

The Department of Physical Education

The Department of Physical Education was added to the Division of Education in 1950. Since that time the department has grown to thirty majors and a teaching staff of four full-time teachers, and several assistants.

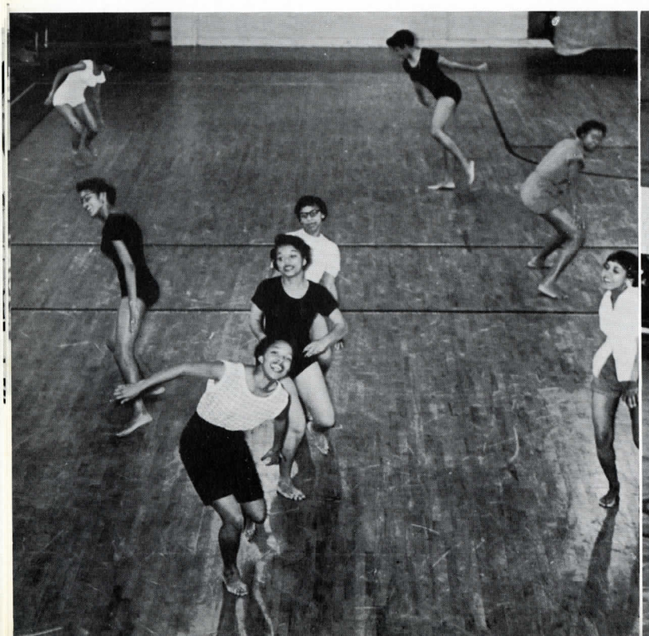

The program aims to prepare students to teach physical education at the elementary and secondary levels, conduct pageants and playdays, and provide leadership for wholesome recreation at the school or community level.

Art

Many changes have taken place in the Art Department during the past two years. Outstanding among these are the exhibits of student work in pottery, silk-screen, design, drawing, and public school art. Due to the colorful displays many students have shown a livelier interest in art, resulting in larger art classes. The Art Department also offers a lecture course, in Survey of Fine Art as part of the freshman humanities program using visual aids.

University Choir

The Dillard University Choir is composed of students of any classification who meet certain standards of ability. The Choir sings at weekly Sunday Vesper services, performs at least two major programs during the year and makes one extended tour, usually in the Spring, as well as fulfilling single engagements in and out of New Orleans.

The Treble Clef

A choral vehicle for students who wish to eventually attain membership in the University Choir. Not a beginners group, yet not advanced.

Men's Glee Club

An organization devoted largely to choral works of a light, popular and secular nature. Folksongs, spirituals and well-known airs form a major part of the repetoire. Some previous experience is required. Emphasis is placed on "barbershop ability."

Homecoming

Miss Sophomore, Garcia Gabriel, and attendants

Preparation for Homecoming

Homecoming was a busy weekend for Dillard students. It began with a pep-rally and bonfire, followed by a parade. The return of the alumni added to the excitement.

This year's student government awarded prizes to the three most decorative floats. The colorful float of the Santa Filomena Club once again won the first prize in this event. The Senior Class took second prize, and the Ivy Leaf Club of the Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority was third.

Lillian Cole reigned over the football game as "Miss Dillard" and was attended by Elaine Washington, senior; Lorraine Brown, junior; Connie West, sophomore, and Cecelia Evans, freshman. At half time, in keeping with the old tradition, "Queen Lillian" was crowned.

The homecoming events ended with dancing and the presentation of gifts to "Miss Dillard" in Henson Hall with members of the Dillard family and guests present.

On December 15, 1956, the Dillard Family gathered in Kearny Hall for their traditional Christmas dinner. The gay decorations and delicious meal made it a Christmas dinner that we will long remember.

Dr. Dent's pleasant remarks and the singing of Christmas carols gave the affair a Christmas atmosphere.

Following the dinner everyone went to Henson Hall where William Houston and his orchestra played for the holiday dance.

Athletics

The Dillard Blue Devils opened their 1956 season with a resounding victory over Philander Smith College of Little Rock, Arkansas. The following week Dillard rolled over Morehouse College to the tune of 20-6. Fisk University was next to enter the "Devil's Den," and was humbled 54-7. For the fourth game the Blue Devils journeyed to Tyler, Texas, and were "hooked" 27-7 by the Texas College Steers. Back in stride, the Pierromen showed their wares to a homecoming crowd and downed a stubborn Tougaloo 33-7. After steam-rolling Rust 61-7, Dillard was defeated in her last two games by Tuskegee 13-19 and Xavier University 9-24.

The Blue Devils finished the 1957 football season without a conference defeat and placed three of her stalwarts on the All-Conference team. "Big" Dempsey, Oscar Piper and John Moss, at their respective positions were chosen as the best performers in the conference.

The 1957 edition of the football team should really look ahead to better days since they will lose only 4 men from their present roster of thirty-four.

The coaching staff of Pierro, Martin and Saunders were well pleased with the performances of their "little satans" this year and eagerly await 1957.

Organizations

Purpose: To assist the undergraduate to realize maximum expression for his individual talents in association with fellow students who share common interests and goals. To afford a vital group experience in concerns mutually understood and accepted. To stimulate a sense of direction in pursuits beyond the classroom and to challenge latent possibilities in growing persons. To afford a cooperative working relationship of students and faculty in the enterprise of self-discovery and social development.

Objective: Since no man liveth unto himself and since all maturing persons find group associations an essential part of personality growth, activities are initiated by students and faculty for a healthy expression of personal-social needs. It is in the give and take of friendly social relationships that we grow up into confident and responsible citizens on campus and in the society of which we are members. Opportunities for developing leadership, exploring areas of concern, and achieving goals are gains to be made through participation in various campus activities. Friendships are enriched and appreciation for the historic role of the University as a community of learning is given meaning and purpose. Activities can be the proving ground for ideas, fellowship, and projects in social understanding. Students are encouraged to identify themselves with activities of their own choosing and to leave for future generations a campus heritage for further exploration and development.

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. was founded December 6, 1906 at Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., as the first fraternity for Negro men, and has since become the first among organizations of its type to open its portals to men of all races. Alpha Phi Alpha has forever sought to justify its existence through a realization of those principles inherent to the organization.

Blending uncommon abilities and common purpose, Alpha men have risen to positions of prominence in every fascet of social life. Taking innate pride in our work towards the general good of the community and the personal uplift of each brother, Alpha Phi Alpha continues:

"The community of gentlemen,
The sanctuary of scholars,
The rendezvous of fraters."

Beta Gamma is comprised of 201 functioning undergraduate and alumni chapters and boasts of a membership of 20,000. The organization was founded January 5, 1911 at Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana, and is justly proud that the constitution which her founders drafted more than forty years ago contains no clause which excludes, or suggests exclusion of membership on the basis of color. The constitution is predicated upon and dedicated to the principles of achievement through a truly democratic fraternity.

In the solemnity and quietness of the night the Editor walks down the corridor and back into the routine of everyday school life. The big job is finished.

Finis

A yearbook is many things to many people: to the student, generally, it is a record of a year's events in his college life; to the staff it is the culmination of a dream.

The staff acknowledges indebtedness to all who have shared in the fulfillment of this dream. A special note of thanks is due the following persons: the members of the English department who did much of our final proof reading; Mr. Alvin S. Bynum whose photo files we almost depleted; Mr. Giles A. Hubert, our Co-Advisor, who made a real sacrifice to supply us with pictures; Dr. Samuel L. Gandy and Mr. George W. Morton who supplied us with valuable copy; Dean William Cope, Jr., our Advisor, who deserted family and neglected sleep to help make this venture a success; Thaddeus Johnson who lent freely of his artistic talents and, finally, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Williams of Camera Masters Studio who went above and beyond contract and fees in supplying us with deadline pictures.

Classes have been missed, studies neglected and averages have fallen, but now that the big job is finished, we look back upon the long, sleepless nights and weary days and count ourselves blessed—blessed because we have worked together and shared ideas toward a common goal, an experience we shall remember all our lives. We dare not say that ours was the best job that could have been done. We say simply that we have done our best and hope sincerely that you are pleased with our efforts.
